PSC to Conduct SCANA Energy Hearings June 17-18

Atlanta, June 6, 2008 — The Georgia Public Service Commission (Commission) will hold hearings June 17, 2008 and June 18, 2008 into allegations by Commission staff that natural gas marketer SCANA Energy (SCANA) violated state law and Commission rules. The hearing on June 17 will begin at 11 a.m. while the June 18 hearing will begin at 10 a.m. The hearings will take place in the Commission hearing room, Room 110, 244 Washington St. SW, Atlanta, Georgia. The public is invited to submit comments either in person or by fax, e-mail, regular mail or telephone at the contacts listed below.

The hearings, known as a Rule Nisi proceeding (or show cause hearing) will take place according to the following schedule:

- June 17 through June 18, 2008—Hearings
- July 8, 2008 – Briefs and proposed orders filed

More information on this issue can be found on the Commission's website, www.psc.state.ga.us, under Docket Numbers 26837.

The audio web cast of the hearing is available on the Commission's website, <http://www.psc.state.ga.us> under the Audio Broadcast link.
